

National Environmental Services Week

September 9 – 15

Help us celebrate our Environmental Services Department during National Environmental Services Week- September 9 – 15.

We are taking this opportunity to recognize our Environmental Services team as essential personnel in the execution of our medical center's infection control cleaning protocols, patient safety goals and overall care experience.

Thank you for all that you do!